Pacifist Cleric Slated for Jail

Attorneys Say Cincy Preacher Shuns Appeal

CINCINNATI (AP)—A pacifist minister who tried to show hatred for war by not paying income tax will start a prison term soon. But echoes of his conviction still stir comment in his defense.

The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin faces a six month federal prison term and a $250 fine on a charge of failing to answer a summons to talk over his taxes.

Fred A. Dewey, one of his court-appointed attorneys and a law professor at the University of Cincinnati, said Sunday night because of the minister's wishes, an appeal will not be made.

"We told him we think there are good grounds for an appeal," Dewey said, "but the last word we had from him was that he does not want us to appeal."

"We felt that the government failed to prove its case—failed to show any delegation of authority for the summons—and also that there were improper matters in connection with the sentence."

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin has been pastor of a combined Episcopal-Presbyterian church and director of a church-connected neighborhood house.

Episcopal and Presbyterian leaders said last Friday they will take over the neighborhood house and dismiss its governing board, which also governs the church, effective at the end of the year.

But U. S. Fowler, board chairman, said Sunday night the group plans to fight the ouster action. A meeting is set tonight on this and the problem of getting another pastor.

Twenty-six clergymen and educators late Sunday issued a statement saying they think citizens and officials of church, state and community "who may have special responsibility" should respect the Rev. Mr. McCrackin's right of conscience.

The group was headed by Dean Walter G. Mueller of Boston University School of Theology.

The statement said, in part:

"In our democratic society and in these times when democracy is hard pressed in many parts of the world, officers of state and church as well as citizens and churchmen generally should scrupulously refrain from any persecution of conscience...."

"In disobeying the law, Rev. Mr. McCrackin (sic) clearly risked the legal penalties which this may entail. But there should be room in the church and community for people who differ on problems such as participation in war."

To 'See' World Formed?

Space Ship Guide Center Dedicated

BIG PINE, Calif. (AP)—They've dedicated a 1½-million-dollar radio observatory near here that some day may track and guide space ships as they speed far out into the universe.

It's believed also that once both of the observatory's two 90-foot dish antennas are in operation scientists will be able to peer 30 billion light years back into time and space.

Built by the California Institute of Technology, with Navy help on financing, the observatory is located in the Owens Valley, 250 miles north of Los Angeles.

Rear Adm. Rawson Bennett II, chief of naval research, told a dedication audience Friday: "This observatory may be able to reach far enough back into time to see our own world as it was billions of years ago — perhaps while it was still being formed."

The admiral was referring to the Einstein concept that time and space are like a doughnut — that if you go far enough and fast enough you come back where you started. And, since you are sneaking in from behind, you get there prior to the time of your departure.

A light year represents the distance that a beam of light—traveling along at 186,000 miles per second—travels in a year.

The farthest man has been able to see out into the universe thus far is two billion light years. This is the range of the 200-inch Hale telescope on Mount Palomar in San Diego County.

Actually, there isn't much point in building a bigger visual telescope because of the distortion of light waves by the earth's atmosphere. But the atmosphere has no effect on radio telescopes.

Even now, with only one of this observatory's antennas in operation, radio signals have been picked up from stars a billion light years away.

When the second 90-foot mesh dish is ready next spring, observatory Director John G. Bolton expects to begin receiving radio impulses from stars up to 30 billion light years away.

The observatory will be able not only to receive radio impulses over tremendous distances, but send them as well. That's where the tracking and guiding of space ships comes in. It's also where the Navy's interest is keen.

"More than $1,300,000 of the construction cost was provided by the Office of Naval Research," Adm. Bennett said.

"The research we do here is expected to improve navigation of ships and planes. In bad weather, the stars man has steered by for centuries" are not visible. Before long, fliers and mariners will be guided not by the light from the stars but by the radio impulses from them."

Just a Minor Detail

HOUSTON (AP)—Ceremonies marking the placing of the cornerstone of the new one-million-dollar First Christian church were held up momentarily. Someone forgot to bring the cornerstone.

George Emerson, 76, Route 3, Circleville, driver of the pickup truck, was taken to Berger Hospital for a fractured right hip.

Mrs. Marie Tilton, 19, a passenger in the car, suffered a laceration near the left eye. The auto was operated by her husband, Thomas J. Tilton, 20, who was not injured.

Tilton, traveling north, told Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff that he suddenly saw Emerson's truck approaching from the opposite direction with no lights. Deputy Radcliff said the vehicles crashed head-on.

Both vehicles were heavily damaged, the deputy said.

Terhune Named Ohio Ag Chief

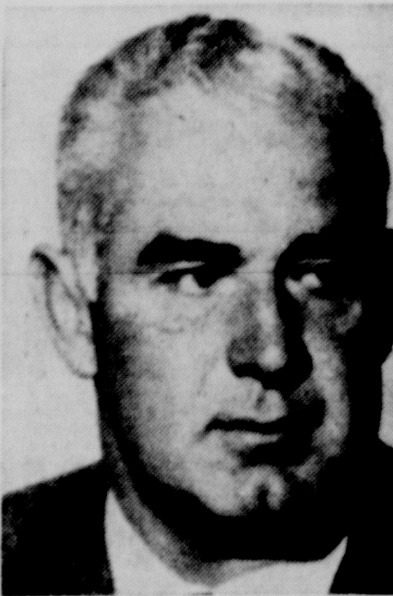

Washington C. H. Man Is DiSalle's Choice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert H. Terhune of Washington Court House is Gov. Elect Michael V. DiSalle's choice for director of agriculture.

Terhune, formerly of Circleville, was principal of Circleville High School in 1937-38, also teaching and coaching. Later he was named superintendent of Jackson Twp. school. Terhune was president of the local Kiwanis Club in 1938.

The appointment, announced today, is the second to the incoming governor's cabinet. It was announced Sunday that Grant Keys, mayor of Elyria, is to be state highway safety director.

Terhune, 50, operates 600 acres of farm land as Bohana Farms, Inc., in Fayette and Madison counties. A 1933 graduate of Ohio State University, where he played football, wrestled, ran track and was university heavyweight boxing champion as a senior, he returned to earn his master's degree in 1939.

From 1933 to 1937, Terhune was farm program director of WCHO radio in Washington Court House. He has also been an educator in Fayette county, but has devoted most of his time to farming, and now specializes in dairying and sale of registered Holsteins.

A Sunday school teacher for the past 16 years at Grace Methodist Church in Washington Court House, Terhune is also active in scouting, and serves as vice president of the Central Ohio Boy Scout Council. He was president from 1955 to 1957.

President of the Washington Court House Chamber of Commerce for 1953-54, Washington Court House Lions Club (1945-46) and as master of the Fayette Grange (1945-47). Married and the father of three, Terhune is also an inventor. He holds a patent on a portable silo device.

The 41-year-old Keys is a third-term mayor of Elyria, a former bomber pilot and the father of nine children.

Keys, first cabinet member to be announced by Gov-elect Michael V. DiSalle, will replace Gordon Jeffery of Toledo under the forthcoming Democratic administration. A member of the Ohio Municipal League's Committee on Streets and Highways, Keys took the traffic safety course at Northwestern University in Boston.

Since 1953, when he was first elected mayor, Elyria has won nine awards for traffic safety from such organizations as the National Safety Council, Ohio Safety Council and American Automobile Assn.

Keys has lived in Elyria since 1918, when his family moved there from his birthplace at Barnesville. He attended Ohio University and served as a pilot in World War II. His children include six sons and three daughters.

Goldfine Gets 3-Month Jail Term in Tax Probe

French Boost DeGaulle Power

Presidency Is Voted By Huge Majority

PARIS (AP)—Premier Charles de Gaulle's bandwagon rolled on in France Sunday with his third personal voting victory. As expected, members of the Electoral College overwhelmingly elected him the first president of the Fifth Republic.

The wartime hero, 68, who stepped aside as premier in 1946 rather than play second fiddle to the National Assembly, now can assume the presidency for a seven-year term with greatly increased powers. He will take over the office from Rene Coty, 76, the "rule by Assembly" of the Fourth Republic collapsed just as de Gaulle had predicted. Under special powers granted him to reform the French state after the revolt last May, de Gaulle wrote a new constitution with a strong executive.

His first victory came when the new constitution was approved by an 80 per cent vote in a September election.

In November, a new National Assembly was elected with a preponderance of de Gaulle followers.

In Sunday's presidential election de Gaulle got 78.5 per cent of the valid ballots of the grand electors, an Electoral College representing the French mainland and overseas territories.

De Gaulle did not vote or take part in the election. As premier he did not belong to any category of the grand electors, made up of mayors, municipal and county councillors, Parliament members and a few plain citizens.

Of 79,468 valid ballots, complete returns gave de Gaulle 62,392.

The two token opposition candidates ran far behind. Communist Georges Marrange, 70, mayor of the Paris suburb of Ivry, received 10,354 votes. Albert Chatelet, 75, a University of Paris dean and candidate of the non-Communist opposition to de Gaulle, got 6,722.

U.S. Talking Moon To Get New Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—Earthmen were ready today for more two-way radio contacts with the mighty Atlas missile-satellite, now in its fourth day of hurtling about the globe.

Radio contacts are attempted when the nearly 4½-ton satellite reaches a favorable position in relation to four sending and receiving stations in the United States.

Over the weekend a number of voice and radio-teletypewriter messages were transmitted to the fast-traveling satellite, and relayed back to posts in California, Georgia, Texas and Arizona.

Most of the words that flashed back and forth were those of President Eisenhower wishing, in this Christmas season "peace on earth and good will toward men everywhere." This was the message sent up with the Atlas in recorded form, then erased by remote control and sent again.

Barreling along at 17,000 miles an hour, the 85-foot Atlas is orbiting the earth in an egg-shaped flight pattern. After it was launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., Thursday night, scientists said the satellite had a life expectancy of about 20 days.

In its first few days aloft, American scientists have conducted a number of communications tests they said could lead to such futuristic developments as space-relayed television and globe-spinning military communications.

The weekend tests involved (1) relaying Eisenhower's voice-recorded "peace on earth" message, (2) relaying — in coded form — that message and another by radio teletypewriter, and (3) leaving the messages in the satellite's tape recorder for a while before triggering their transmission to ground stations.

Sunday afternoon, a station at Ft. Stewart, Ga., sent out seven teletypewriter messages simultaneously to the Atlas. All seven messages carried Eisenhower's words. Then, on radio command, all seven were returned from the satellite simultaneously.

The seven-message test also was run, with variations, by ground stations at Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., and near Los Angeles.

The weekend also brought publication of a report in which the House Space Committee's staff spoke of the danger that unheralded satellite firings could cause somebody with a nervous trigger finger to set off a nuclear-missile war. The report suggested a requirement for advance filing of satellite flight plans.

The document was prepared before the Atlas launching—whose orbital purpose had been kept a tight secret. But George J. Feldman, staff director for the Space Committee, said the launching gives the report immediacy.

"The danger is clear and present, as the committee staff pointed out," he said.

Soviet To Spend Billions on New Industry, Science

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government today announced a vast new program of spending on scientific research, social welfare and expansion of the Soviet economy.

Finance Minister Arseny Zverev outlined the program to a joint session of the Supreme Soviet, the parliament of the Soviet Union, which opened its annual meeting to approve the government budget for the coming year.

The biggest jump came in the projected government investments to expand the Soviet production facilities — a huge increase of 71,400,000,000 rubles — or nearly 18 billion dollars — over the amount spent in 1958.

Zverev said the expansion fund would total 484,300,000,000 — $121,075,000,000 — including direct government investments of 308,700,000,000 rubles from government enterprises to be ploughed back.

Investments will be particularly increased, he continued, in the iron and steel, chemical, oil and gas industries, and in engineering. He also announced an allocation of 3,300,000,000 rubles — $7,575,000,000 — for the expansion of agriculture.

Zverev said 27,300,000,000 rubles — $6,825,000,000 — would be appropriated for scientific research. He compared this to a previous appropriation of 23,900,000,000.

He said 232 billion rubles, or 58 billion dollars, would be spent in 1959 on education, health, social insurance and maternity benefits for prolific mothers, an increase of nearly 20 billion rubles over 1958. This will include more than 94 billion rubles for education, 44 billion for the health program, over 88 billion for social insurance and 5½ billion for mothers.

"As compared with 1958, the national income will increase by 8 per cent and will be 140 per cent greater than in 1950," Zverev said.

The finance minister called for increased labor productivity and lower production costs in industry, transport services and agriculture. The labor force is to increase by 1,300,000 workers, but the workers obviously are expected to produce still more than in past years in the campaign to overtake the American economy.

Zverev said the Soviet government expects its budget revenues to rise to 722,900,000,000 rubles, an increase of 9.3 per cent over 1958, and expenditures to go up 10.8 per cent to 707,200,000,000 rubles.

By contrast with the big rise in expenditures for education and social benefits, a slight decrease was promised in the defense appropriation. This was put at 96,100,000,000 — $24,025,000,000 — as compared with a 1958 defense appropriation of 96,300,000,000 rubles.

The finance minister said the defense budget "reflects the peace policy of the Soviet Union, a policy of preserving peace in the whole world."

(The actual figure for Soviet defense spending is far greater than that given for the defense appropriation but cannot be estimated.)

Cincinnati Police Bullet Seriously Hurts Bystander

CINCINNATI (AP)—A postal worker, accidentally shot during a police auto chase early Sunday, is in critical condition at General Hospital.

Police said Casey Weaver, 54, was apparently struck in the chest by a police bullet that ricocheted. Weaver was walking home.

A passerby discovered Weaver lying unconscious on the sidewalk and called police. Investigators said the police cruiser started after a car with obscured license plates and Patrolman Raymond Easterling fired five shots at the car.

Officers said the pursued car was halted at a roadblock and its driver, Joseph W. Bohanon, 28, of Newport, Ky., was taken into custody.

More Court Action Stated

Adams' Pal Dismayed By Judge's Decision

BOSTON (AP)—Federal Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr. sentenced New England industrialist Bernard Goldfine to three months in jail today for contempt of court in failing to turn over company records in a tax probe.

Miss Mildred Paperman, his secretary for many years, was given 10 days in jail. Sentences will start Jan. 7. Both were released in personal recognizance of $1,000.

Their convictions were handed down Friday by Judge Wyzanski. Judge Wyzanski told Goldfine: "I have no wish that you spend this season in jail and I wish to give you adequate opportunity to present this case to the court of appeals."

A look of dismay crossed the 67-year-old Goldfine's face. Miss Paperman sagged a bit as the judge passed sentence.

Judge Wyzanski said he based his decision on the fact that Goldfine and Miss Paperman were "intimate with tribunal proceedings and were well aware of the penalties for flouting the authority of his court."

Goldfine, gift-giving friend of former presidential aide Sherman Adams, and Miss Paperman were convicted of criminal contempt. Civil contempt charges were dismissed.

U. S. Atty. Anthony Julian had recommended that Goldfine be given six months prison sentence and fined $10,000. He recommended a two-month term for Miss Paperman.

The sentences are to be served at a prison to be selected by the U. S. attorney general.

In another court action, Goldfine and other officers of the East Boston Co., a realty concern, were to answer to civil contempt charges brought by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The SEC charged that the company failed to file reports with the commission and the Boston Stock Exchange.

Goldfine also is involved in a third contempt case. He pleaded innocent last Friday to a contempt of Congress charge in connection with his alleged failure to answer questions about his financial affairs before a congressional subcommittee last summer.

Goldfine is due to go on trial in the Washington case March 16.

18 Columbus 'Blue Law' Cases Await Prosecution

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police Prosecutor Bernard Chapka laid plans today for charging operators and clerks in 18 Columbus business places with violating the Sunday sales "blue laws."

Police cited the business establishments Sunday, ordering the operators and clerks to report to the police prosecutor's office.

Four special police squads, each accompanied by an attorney from the prosecutor's office, delivered the citations as part of Mayor Maynard Sensenbrenner's campaign to crack down on Sunday store operations here.

The "blue law" violations call for a penalty of $25 fine for the first offense and a maximum of 30 days in jail and $100 fine for a second offense.

Stores that remain closed on Saturday in observance of the Sabbath may open Sunday under the Sunday sales laws.

Dead Nurse's Mother-in-Law Hired Killers, Laborer Says

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Police fitted in the pieces today of a plot they said led to the brutal killing of attractive Olga Duncan, whose bruised body was found in a shallow grave beside a lonely road.

An itinerant laborer, with a local police record, climaxed his tale of what he said was a hired slaying by leading officers Sunday to her hand-scoped grave.

Augustine Baldonado, 25, said in a statement that the dead woman's mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 44, hired him and Luis Moya, 22, to kill five-months-pregnant Olga Duncan, 30, for $6,000.

Investigators said the victim may have been buried alive. They quoted Baldonado: "I don't know. We strangled her, and I think we killed her before we put her in the ground."

The victim, a surgical nurse, had been missing since Nov. 18. She was the estranged wife of Santa Barbara lawyer Frank Duncan. They separated only two weeks after their marriage last June.

Dist. Atty. Roy Gustafson said jealousy of the older woman was the major motive.

Less than four months before her death, the dead woman had written her mother, Mrs. Jessie Kupezyk of Benito, Manitoba, that Mrs. Duncan held "an uncanny hold" over her son. She said she planned an annulment.

"Don't dwell on my troubles," Olga Duncan wrote. "Life is short, and I want to enjoy the rest of it."

Moya, who has denied knowledge of the slaying, was described by Santa Barbara Sheriff John Ross as badly shaken upon learning of Baldonado's statement.

Mrs. Duncan, too, has insisted she knows nothing of her daughter-in-law's disappearance.

Police say Mrs. Duncan has been married five times in eight years. She is charged with posing in court here as her son's wife, along with a paid confederate, to obtain a fraudulent annulment of her son's marriage last August.

It was the discovery of the spurious annulment, authorities say, that caused them to begin an intensive search for the missing daughter-in-law.

Charges are on file at Santa Barbara accusing Mrs. Duncan, Moya and Baldonado of conspiring to kidnap and murder Olga Duncan. They are held in lieu of $100,000 bail apiece.

Police, led by Baldonado, found the body of the nurse, clothed only in a nylon bathrobe, buried at the bottom of a 20-foot embankment on Casitas Pass, 19 miles northwest of Ventura.

Gustafson quoted Baldonado as saying he and Moya took turns holding the struggling woman while the other dug the 16-inch-deep grave.

New Burden on Newsmen

Decision by the United States Supreme Court refusing to hear the case of Marie Torre, New York columnist convicted of contempt of court for refusing to disclose her source for a news item, will be viewed with regret by newsmen.

They believe with justification that the need exists for a right to refuse to disclose news sources, even to a court. Every good reporter receives information from time to time that the public should have and that he can report—with the understanding that he will not reveal who gave him the tip.

Now the high court's action infers that the right of refusal to disclose sources is not an inherent right under the Constitution, which will result in the closing of many news sources because no one can be sure he will be protected when he talks to a reporter.

There now are two recourses left to newsmen. One is to refuse anyway and thus go to jail, if necessary, to protect a news source. The second is to seek in state legislatures the right by specific statute that is denied by the court as an inherent right.

Legal experts will be happy that the point has been cleared up by the court. But newsmen will realize that, by taking the matter out of the "gray area" of legal rights, the court has put a heavier burden on them in fulfilling their responsibilities to the public.

Business Gifts on Way Out

The word is out that it is no longer smart to load your Christmas clients with expensive Christmas gifts. That is the report in Nation's Business, monthly magazine published by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

"Many an executive will cast a wistful eye at the postman this month of Christmas," predicts the magazine, "remembering a day when the Yule mails brought all manner of good things from suppliers and other business acquaintances." In fact, business gift giving is fast becoming as passe as the nickel newspaper and free lunch.

"The trend away from gift giving has been spurred by a stingy awareness among businessmen of what such practices have done to the reputations of political figures. In addition, the practice is being viewed in a more realistic perspective—as one which has, at most, a dubious utility and only a faint ring of sincerity," says Nation's Business.

Spider Web Better than Steel

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That the web of a spider, strand for strand, is stronger than if it were woven of filaments of steel of the same weight.

A survey among 2,500 men showed that 42.5 per cent preferred a cultural gift for Christmas, and 40 per cent wanted a bottle of liquor.

Looking for something to hate? Why not the boll weevil? It causes 300 million dollars a year damage to the cotton crop.

Ever wonder how much you'll eat in your lifetime? Nutritionist Carlton Fredericks puts the figure for the average man at 150,000 pounds.

One hundred million Americans now own life insurance.

It's a real wonder more people haven't broken the bank at Monte Carlo. Monaco has an army of only 65 men.

Robert Q. Lewis says a bikini is something that makes a girl look cooler — and a man look longer.

Most psychoanalysts now avoid leather couches—they're too slippery for nervous patients. Incidentally, prices for analysts' couches now run from $85 to $350 or more for de luxe hydraulically operated models.

Anthropologists found an odd custom among some tribes in African Somaliland. Wives had to be faithful to their husbands only from Monday to Thursday.

Nothing shows the romantic nature of Americans more than the drawings they put on the back of envelopes. The most common one:

A heart punctured by a shivering arrow.

Is there a connection between pets and mental health? The ancient Greeks believed that a person always accompanied by a dog would never suffer from insanity.

Charles I was so selfishly fond of ice cream he wanted the delicacy restricted to royalty, so he paid his French chef, Jacques, 500 pounds a year to keep the recipe secret.

Everyone has his own idea of what a highbrow is, but it's hard to beat Edgar Wallace's crisp definition: "A highbrow is a man who has found something more interesting than women."

It was Christopher Morley who observed, "The first proof of old age is when you think that other people aren't having the fun you had."

Good Gift -- A Checkup

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Still have a couple of last-minute Christmas presents to get?

Well, let me give you a few suggestions.

How about giving those adults closest to you the benefit of a thorough physical checkup? Don't just give them the money to pay for it—it is too easily spent on something else—but call up your doctor and make an appointment.

Or, perhaps a complete cancer examination can be arranged. I have advised you previously what an examination such as this should include.

Now, I know you are saying to yourself: "What a silly present! Who would appreciate anything like that?"

You know, you would be surprised. Can you think of a better gift than a clean bill of health? And what better way to determine that you are perfectly healthy—or that you need treatment—than by a good checkup?

Most of us just naturally put off going to a doctor, especially if there appears to be nothing wrong. Yet there is considerable relief, more peace of mind, when you know you are okay.

If there is someone hard of hearing on your gift list, how about arranging for a hearing aid? You can't order any specific model, of course, but you can provide the money and incentive for someone to arrange to get one which fits his needs.

For that matter, how about a set of contact lenses for someone who can use and wants them?

These are very practical suggestions for gifts that will show how deeply you feel about those near and dear to you. These are gifts that are remembered when others are apt to be forgotten.

Of course we don't want to forget the kids. Any of the gifts I have mentioned are just as appropriate for children if the need and desire is present.

As for toys, answer these four questions before buying any.

1. Will the toy interest the child at his age and stage of development?

2. Will he enjoy it over a period of time?

3. Is it built of good material and sturdily constructed?

4. Is it free from dangerous elements?

Okay, now go ahead and complete your shopping.

Question and Answer

P. B.: I am in good health and acquire a good tan during the summer, but lose it during the winter. What would you advise?

Answer: Your tanning in summer and paling out in winter is a perfectly normal reaction to the amount of ultra-violet sunlight available during these seasons.

If you want a year-around tan without going to a tropical climate, a sun lamp may be used, providing it is used with care.

More than 80 percent of Australia is mountainous, but more than half of this is under cultivation. Agriculture employs one-third of the population.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's letter to Santa Claus — if he were to write to Santa Claus at 68 — could go like this, since it isn't hard to guess what he has on his mind:

Dear Mr. Claus: I have been living at my present address the past six years. It's a big white house on Pennsylvania Avenue. It has nine chimneys. So you should have no trouble finding me.

Since I have been here, I've done my best not to say anything mean to anyone. I know I do sound awful mad sometimes — about every two years, around election time—at some of the neighbors. They're the Democrats, a very big family. Every once in a while they pick on me, especially at election time. Then they're real mean to me. And I get mad back. It doesn't last long.

Most of the time we get along nicely, but I'd appreciate it if you could bring them a big dose of something—like soothing syrup—so they'd always be nice to me. That would be a real good Christmas present. I can tell you why.

I have to live here another two years before the lease is up. And in that time I would like to be as happy as possible with a minimum of trouble. I would love to have some peace and quiet, if you have some to spare.

I know you're a very kind man but I just don't know how much influence you have. I sure wish you could use your influence on one person I have in mind.

He's a kind of roly-poly fat man with a bald head. He'd look like you if he had some hair and a white beard. To hear him talk, you'd think he was Santa Claus himself.

He's always promising to make things better for people. He's a real pushy type. He gets on my nerves. His name is Nikita Khrushchev.

Could you please put some sense in his head and get him to give up these crazy notions he has about communism being better than capitalism? I think things would get better right away. At least, I hope so.

I'd like some money, too, a lot of money. Not for myself. I'm getting along all right. But for the Treasury. We have a lot of expenses coming up next year and the Treasury needs money to pay for them.

I'm being called names — like Skimp — because I'm trying to cut down on expenses.

I know it doesn't make any difference to you whether a child is white or Negro. And it never seems to make any difference to children, either, whether you just went down a white chimney or Negro chimney, so long as you come down theirs.

I could use some help on this. For four years, ever since the Supreme Court said no more racial segregation in the public schools, I have been having trouble with white people in the South who won't obey the court.

I think I'm going to keep on having trouble for the rest of my two years here unless something unusual happens. And I can't think what that might be. Do you have an answer?

There is certainly one other thing I'd like for Christmas. That's some kind of medicine to make my cousins, the Republicans, big and strong again. They're beginning to look awful puny, no matter what I have tried to do for them.

They don't get along with the voters. The Democrats are forever picking on them. And they don't seem to know how to win elections any more.

Unless things get better fast we are going to be in bad shape when I leave here in 1961 and one of the cousins wants to take over the lease.

I hope I haven't asked for too much. But these are things that have me stumped. So all I am really asking is: do you have some stump removers?

Santa and the ELF BOY

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

Esteban flung the powder on the beautiful woman's eyelids.

SYNOPSIS: The Hag tells Esteban that if he will take her back to earth from the moon, she will give him a powder that will awaken the professor's spell-bound wife. But as they prepare to leave, the Man in the Moon stops them.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

"I am sorry," said the Man in the Moon as he blocked Esteban's path. "I cannot let you go."

Esteban fell back in alarm. "What?" he cried. "Why would you hold us here?"

The old man smiled gently. "I will not keep you long," he said sadly. "Only long enough for me to feast my eyes once more on this beautiful vision." He peered with adoring eyes at the Hang-dog Hag.

"Me?" cackled the Hag in astonishment. "You mean I am beautiful?"

"To me, you are lovely," said the old man. "If only you would be my bride. This old moon would never be lonely again."

"Me? A bride?" she gasped.

Esteban plucked at the Hag's arm. "Come let us hurry."

But the Hag shook him off and stood gazing at the old man. "No creature—man or beast—has called me beautiful before," she whispered. "I will stay and be his bride."

Then the Hag and the Man in the Moon fell joyfully into one another's arms. So happy were they with each other they scarcely looked up when Esteban waved farewell.

well and sped away in his sleigh.

On the long trip back to earth Esteban never stopped urging on the deer. "Father! Faster! Faster!" And the deer obeyed so well that in no time at all they were back in Santa Land.

The anxious fairy folk swarmed around him.

"It's done!" cried Esteban holding up the little box.

"I have the powder to break the spell!"

Then they all cheered mightily and Santa said, "It is Christmas Eve. My bag is packed. Come, Esteban, we will leave at once."

And once again the sleigh, heavy with gifts, took off into the sky. The exhausted reindeer held their heads high and shook their antlers gaily.

At last they swept down over a sleeping town. As they passed the town hall they could see the clock in the steeple. A quarter to midnight. In fifteen minutes it would be Christmas Day.

Gently the sleigh landed on the roof of the great white castle. As it did so a strange thing happened. A hawk who had been sleeping in his nest on the roof awoke and took off in flight. Then a little blue bird shook herself free of the nest and hopped to the sleigh.

"It's my blue bird!" cried Esteban, picking up the bird. "We've saved her anyway!" He gave the bird to Santa and then he climbed into the nearest chimney.

A second later he popped out in Charlotte's room. The little girl looked up in astonishment when he appeared.

"Esteban!" She cried. "Where have you been?"

Esteban put his hand over her mouth. "I'll tell you all later. Are you locked in?"

"Oh, no! My father said if I tried to get anyone to stop him the same thing would happen to that one as happened to you. So I promised I wouldn't bother him again. But, oh, Esteban, he is in his room now waiting for midnight to release the gas!"

"Go to him at once!" cried Esteban rushing out the door. "Implore him to come to the room where the sleeping women lies just once before he releases the gas!"

Charlotte flew through the corridors to do his bidding while he himself raced up the stairs to the room where the beautiful woman lay.

He opened the little box and, taking out a pinch of white powder, flung the powder on the closed eyelids.

There was a gentle movement on the bed and the sleeping woman opened her eyes.

For a long moment she and Esteban gazed at one another and then she sat up and said, "Where is my husband? Where is my own darling child?"

(Tomorrow: A Merry Christmas)

Relief Office Advanced $20,732

Pickaway County received $20,732.95 Tuesday in poor relief money from the office of State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

Five million dollars in poor relief money was distributed in response to appeals from many local offices, throughout the state, who reported that their relief funds were exhausted.

Rhodes had promised to put the money out on the 17th if enough money came in by that date the 1.65 per cent excise tax paid by public utilities for poor relief.

Prompt payment by many utilities of this tax made the money available one day earlier than expected and an immediate distribution was made.

THIS IS AN advance distribution of the poor relief money that is usually sent to the counties each February. In a letter to county treasurer and county auditors, which accompanied each check, Rhodes said:

"To me it is unthinkable that this money should lie in the state treasury for several weeks when it can bring some measure of Christmas cheer to those in need."

His letter explained that the balance of the poor relief money due the counties from the excise tax on utilities will be distributed late in January or early February 1959.

Cuyahoga county received $1,031,953, or more than 20 per cent of the $5 million distributed. Most of the rest went to the larger counties.

CLEVELAND (AP)—A former mental hospital patient was called into Shaker Heights Municipal Court today for arraignment in the fatal shooting of his father, whom he blamed for a "nervous condition."

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—William Redding Jr. is being returned to Toledo, Ohio, after surrendering here and admitting he is wanted for an Ohio slaying.

Wife Preservers

Clever little Christmas gifts can be made by mixing one teaspoon of detergent with three teaspoons of tempera or powdered paint, then painting metal objects. A frozen orange juice can becomes a pencil holder, for instance.

Your cookies will have a good chance of browning evenly if you bake them on a sheet; this applies to drop, rolled and refrigerator cookies. Bar-type cookies usually have to be baked in cake pans with sides.

Check your range to make sure it is standing on a level floor if you want the best distribution of heat.

She Wears Hair Of Festive Green

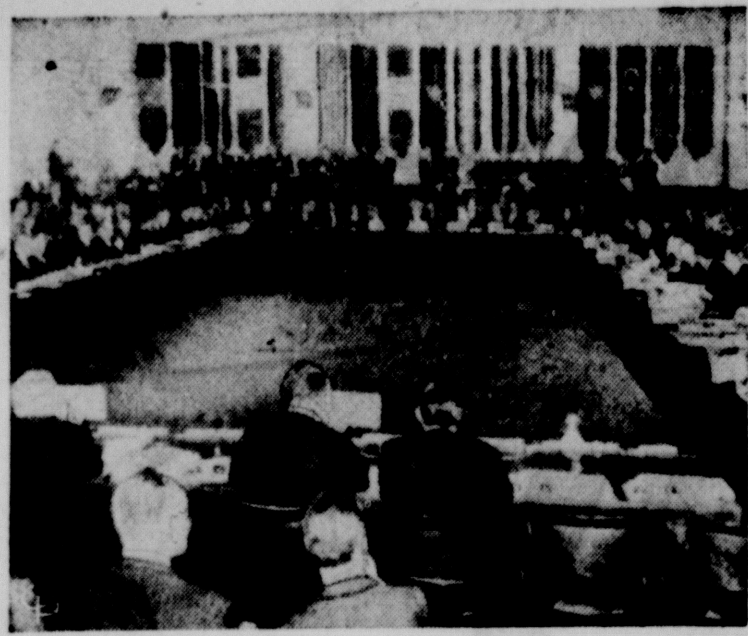

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP) — Santa Claus won't overlook Miss Maxine Gilmerr, office manager at Fayette County Memorial Hospital.

It just couldn't be done, for Miss Gilmerr, who believes that if you have the Christmas spirit you should show it, has had her hair tinted green. Not a subdued green, mind you, but a brilliant, festive emerald green.

The Christmas topping was intended primarily to add color to the hospital's holiday party, but the effect is so startlingly seasonal that Miss Gilmerr will remain a living Christmas tree through the entire Yuletide season.

"It goes well with my beige suit," she said, "especially with these Christmas tree earrings."

Cleveland Harbor Shut Until Next Spring Thaw

CLEVELAND (AP)— Cleveland harbor is closed until next spring. The 500-candlepower light on the city's four-mile water intake crib was turned off Saturday and the three men tending the light were brought ashore. The 554-foot freighter David Thompson arrived Sunday for winter lay up. The Thompson was the last ship scheduled to enter the harbor this season.

Painesville Baptist Church Is Hit by Fire

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)— A fire which started in the basement furnace room routed about 80 worshippers from the Bethel Baptist Church Sunday five minutes before the morning service was scheduled to begin. The fire, extinguished in a half hour, caused an estimated $3,000 damage. Fire Capt. Ralph A. Williams blamed it on an overheated furnace.

You're on the Right Track

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am so ashamed of myself. I could just die. I just sent my 10-year-old daughter to school without breakfast because I didn't care if she ever came back. It all started when she didn't put her clothes out and couldn't find anything in the morning and was almost late for school. I acted like a maniac, screaming and banging things. I said horrible things to her and pushed her out the door. When she left I sat down and cried like a baby. I am miserable. I've done this before and promised myself I wouldn't do it again, but here I am! Are there other mothers who act like that? What can I do to help myself, Abby?

DEAR ABBY: When my husband retired six years ago our three married daughters urged us to move to the city where they live. We have never been invited to any of their homes when they've had guests for cocktails, dinners or an evening. We evidently don't "fit in" with their friends. We are very much in demand however as "sitters" but it never occurs to them to invite us to their homes as "guests." This situation has hurt us both badly.

DO NOT FIT
DEAR DO: If you don't "fit" — don't "sit."

DEAR SAD: If it is any comfort to you, you are not alone. I suggest you seek professional help. A good doctor could teach you how to relax, control your temper and live agreeably with your family.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for 16 years if you can call this a marriage. He is a husband six days a week but on Saturdays he is not married at all. He goes off early in the morning with his shaving kit and I don't see him until church time Sunday morning. He puts 200 miles on his car and who knows where he went? He says marriage is a JOB and everybody gets one day off a week from his job and Saturday is his day off from his marriage. Am I crazy or is he?

SIX-DAY WIFE
DEAR SIX: Marriage is a seven-day-a-week job and any man who can talk his wife out of a "day off" from his marriage could sell sand to the Arabs.

HUSBAND
DEAR HUSBAND: Your wife may be old enough to be his mother, but this lad is old enough to get along WITHOUT a mother. Ask your wife to introduce him to someone his own age and call the friendship to a halt.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ohio Bishop's Father Dies in Cleveland at 76

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ill since 1950, John J. Krol Sr., father of the Cleveland Diocese's Auxiliary Bishop, died in Cleveland Clinic Hospital Sunday. Varied Circumstances Bring New Luster to U.S. Business

NEW YORK (AP) — From Wall Street to Cape Canaveral, a happy combination of circumstances and events added luster to an already brightening business scene this week.

American Telephone & Telegraph Co., the world's largest industrial colossus, demonstrated its faith in the nation's economic future by proposing a three-for-one split of the stock and a 10 per cent boost in the dividend.

This is the first stock split in A.T.&T. history, and the first dividend change in 37 years.

The dividend rise will mean a 63-million-dollar bonus for A.T.&T.'s 1,625,000 stockholders. Coincidentally, member companies of A.T.&T.'s Bell System in 11 states have rate increase applications pending for almost that amount.

Avowed objective of the stock split: to create a broader market for the company's shares by breaking them into smaller pieces (A.T.&T. closed Friday on the New York Stock Exchange at $223.50 a share). In the A.T.&T.'s own words, "it will strengthen the position of the company in competing for the large amounts of equity capital that will be needed in the future to meet the nation's requirements for telephone service in our expanding economy."

While A.T.&T.'s surprise move bolstered confidence in the nation's economy, successful launching of the 4½-ton Atlas missile restored the public's lagging faith in U. S. prowess in the realm of space. As the huge Atlas, more than 2½ tons heavier than Russia's biggest Sputnik, orbited around the globe, shares of companies that helped build or fuel the Atlas rocketed through the roof.

Stock sales totaled 18,656,430 shares in the latest week compared to 19,094,914 shares in the previous week and 13,173,320 in the corresponding week a year ago.

Bond sales had a par value of $34,850,000 in the latest week, $32,377,500 in the previous week and $27,343,500 in the same 1957 week.

Here again, as with A.T.&T., the accent was on the increasing importance of communications. Experts said the Atlas marks an important first step toward radio communication with satellites — an achievement which may pave the way for manned space flights.

Back in the earthbound world of commerce, signs continued to multiply this week that the recovery from recession was still in high gear.

New car sales took a sharp turn upward. Despite a crippling strike at Chrysler Corp., the auto industry set a production goal of half a million cars this month. For the first three months of 1959 it set a quota of 1,644,000 cars. That would compare with only 1,238,710 produced in the first three months of 1958.

CONTEMPLATION—Head buried in its feathers and balancing on one leg, this crane in Chesington, England, is a picture of ornithological contemplation.

SANTA'S CANINE HELPERS—Flown from Switzerland to New York to bring cheer to hundreds of children in the Christmas season, these St. Bernard dogs are greeted at Idlewild Airport by Charles Saari, 11, and Patty Duke, 10. They are to be used at Salvation Army centers and orphanages in New York, Chicago, Seattle, Dallas, San Francisco and other cities.

Pennsylvania Checking Cars for Ohio Liquor

SHARON, Pa. (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board's roving plain clothesmen are carrying out a threat of last Thursday to crack down on motorists hauling bottled Christmas cheer into Pennsylvania from Ohio where they can purchase it at lower prices.

Pat Kirwin, chairman of the Pennsylvania SLCB said vehicles carrying the liquor would be confiscated and could be sold. Kirwin said some persons have the wrong impression that they may bring liquor across the state line if the Ohio seals have been broken.

Wire Cutters Put 'Gate' in State Fence

KENT, Ohio (AP)—There's a hole in the fence along limited-access Ohio 18 big enough to drive an automobile through — the automobile of the Martin Streby family.

Mrs. Streby took her wire cutters in hand Friday and put the hole there. She said she was "sick and tired" of carrying 10-gallon cans of fuel oil from the car, which had to be parked on the berm of the limited access highway 600 feet from the Streby house. There had been a smaller opening in the four-foot fence through which Mrs. Streby walked to reach the car. Today she can drive the car through the fence to the house.

The Strebys sold their house and property south of here to the state in 1956, buying back the home and moving it to land off the highway right-of-way. They had planned to bridge a three-foot creek to gain access to another road, but a contractor later widened the creek into a 28-foot river, thus putting the bridge out of reach of the Strebys. They estimate it would cost $3,800 to $5,000. "They can send me to jail if they want," said Mrs. Streby, "but I have to get some fuel oil in." And she did.

New Wheat Plan Believed Coming

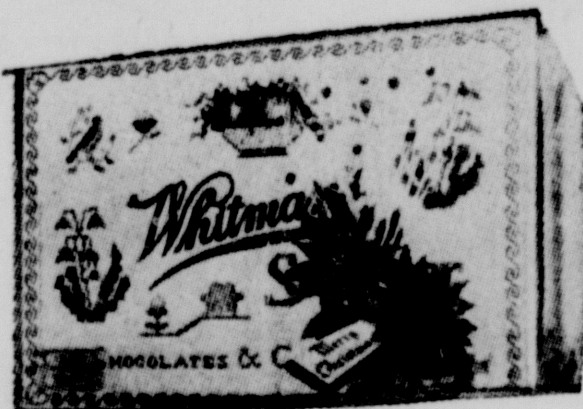

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government report forecasting a 957-million-bushel winter wheat crop next year is expected to add strength to demands that Congress write a new program for that grain.

A crop of this size—when added to the spring crop yet to be seeded—would add to a record surplus of about 1,320,000,000 bushels. This year's winter wheat crop was 1,179,000,000 bushels, the largest of record.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has said that he will urge Congress to write a new wheat program. He contends the present one — based on acreage allotments, marketing quotas and flexible price supports—is not working.

11 Giant Hangmen Tighten Noose on Cleveland Browns

NEW YORK (AP) — Notre Dame had its Four Horsemen, Fordham its Seven Blocks of Granite. Now we have the 11 Hangmen of the New York football Giants.

The 11 Hangmen who form the defensive unit of the Giants, tightened the noose around the neck of Jimmy Brown Sunday afternoon and sprung the trap on Coach Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns.

Because of their inspired defensive play and the opportunistic offense of Chuck Conerly, Frank Gifford, Alex Webster and Co., the Giants have won the Eastern Conference title of the National Football League.

The 10-0 shutout of Cleveland engineered by Conerly's first touchdown of the season—on a lateral from a double reverse — and Pat Summerall's 13th field goal, sent the Giants into the championship game next Sunday with the Baltimore Colts.

The title game also will be played at Yankee Stadium, scene of the Giants' two exciting games with the Browns. It will be carried on network television (NBC) with New York and a 75-mile area blacked out.

Once again it was the grudging defense of the 11 hangmen that thrilled the icy crowd of 61,274.

The Giants' four-man defensive line was tremendous. Andy Robustelli and Jim Katesavage at the ends and Rosey Grier and Dick (Little Mo) Modzelewski at the tackles simply wrecked the Cleveland offense. With Sam Huff backing up the middle, taking dead aim at the great Jimmy Brown, and Cliff Livingston and Harland Sware adding their brawn as line-backers, Cleveland made only 24 yards rushing. Jimmy Brown, who set a league record with 1,527 yards in regular season play, was held to eight yards in seven carries.

The alert deep defense of Lindon Crow (he intercepted two), Carl Karilivacz, Jim Patton and Em Tunnell turned in an excellent job when Cleveland's badly rushed passers took to the air. Milt Plum, who was injured in the first half, and Jim Ninowski, completed 10 of 27.

But all the defense in the world wouldn't have helped the Giants if they hadn't been able to score. The only touchdown was a tricky thing on a frozen field, an 18-yard play late in the first period.

Conerly took the ball from center and handed off to Webster coming around from right half-back. Webster gave it to Gifford, reversing from his left halfback spot. Gifford cut through the right side of the line to the 10 and then tossed a basketball-type lateral that carried about 15 or 20 yards to Conerly, who went all the way.

"I don't know when I scored before," said Conerly, the 37-year-old quarterback from Ole Miss who has thrown 144 touchdown passes.

"It was something new we put in this week," said Conerly. "The lateral on the end was optional. I'm out there and he (Gifford) knows I'm there."

The Giants' other points came on Summerall's 26-yard field goal, set up by a 35-yard pass from Conerly to Bob Schmelzer.

Jimmy Brown simply was defended right out of the ballpark, with Huff his particular tormentor.

"That's the end of Brown for this year and am I glad," said Huff, as friends crowded around his locker.

In the other clubhouse, Jimmy had no excuses. "They just played even harder than last week, more determined," he said.

Coach Paul Brown, whose Browns were blanked for the first time since 1950 and beaten three times by the same team for the first time in any one season, was generous with praise.

"You saw a fine team today, men," he said. "It was a tough, hard nosed game. We were just overpowered in the line. They had a full head of steam up. We had to pass and it had to be excellent. We weren't excellent."

Coach Jim Lee Howell praised his defensive unit.

"They played the best defensive ball I ever saw a club play against a real good team."

Cleveland's only real threat came in the second half. After recovering Don Maynard's fumble of a punt, they moved to the 4 before the defense ganged up on them. Pushed back to the 16, Plum's pass was intercepted by Huff on the first play of the fourth period.

The action became bitter at times. In one flare-up Mel Triplett, the Giants' fullback, was tossed out of the game for throwing a punch or two after an altercation with Don Colo and Don Paul.

Brennan-Firing Irks Irish Players

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—"I think it's a pretty rotten thing," Notre Dame fullback Nick Pietrosante said Sunday night about the firing of his coach, Terry Brennan.

"I don't think the firing was called for," Irish guard Al Ecuyer added.

Both are training with the East team for the annual Shrine East-West game Saturday at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco.

"They don't know what they did to themselves," Pietrosante continued. "They shouldn't have done it. They didn't give him any of the breaks. They expect too much of a team that has to play a schedule like ours."

Broncs Lose 82-70 Test to Greenview

A tall, rangy Greenview squad invaded Ashville Saturday night to take an 82-70 decision from the Broncos. It was a Darby Valley League contest.

Coach Russ Gregg said his cagers played one of their best games of the season, but could not match the tremendous height and shooting ability of the strong Greenview outfit.

The Broncos stayed in contention throughout most of the game. A big third quarter in which the visitors scored 32 points while Ashville could gather only 15 proved the difference.

Greenview led 21-15 at the end of the first quarter, 37-35 at halftime and 69-45 at the three-quarter mark.

BRONCO Bob Hoover played his usual adept game, but had his hands full containing Bradbs of Greenview who measures 6-7. Hoover zeroed in for 24 points and Bradbs proved equally potent with 27.

Ashville hit its best scoring spree of the season, with Hollenback coming through with 16 points, Rathbun 14 and Franks 11. Sellers and Johnston aided Greenview's cause with 19 and 18 points respectively.

Greenview captured the reserve tilt by a 48-39 count.

Final official figures, released Saturday by the PGA, showed this trio won narrow victories in three major statistical departments.

Stumbling Buckeye Cagers Hope for Win over Utah '5'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio State, hoping to bounce back into the win column after two setbacks at Lexington over the weekend, hosts Utah tonight in the friendly confines of St. John Arena.

The Buckeyes were trounced Friday night by Kentucky in the latter's invitational tournament and then lost a disheartening contest to Oklahoma State Saturday for consolation honors.

Kentucky, which beat West Virginia for the tourney title, whipped Ohio 95-76. The Buckeyes staged a whirlwind finish against Oklahoma State coming from 13-points back at halftime before losing in overtime, 63-59.

The Bucks were two seconds away from victory when a little used Oklahoma State sophomore fired in a one-hander to force the game into overtime.

Coach Fred Taylor's team, now 1-4, heads a curtailed schedule of state activity this week. Most Ohio colleges are taking a two-week holiday.

The Buckeyes are in action again Saturday in a regionally televised afternoon contest against Princeton. The game starts at 4:30 p.m.

While Ohio was taking twin setbacks over the weekend, Cincinnati and Dayton kept their unbeaten records intact.

The top-ranked Bearcats (5-0) had to go all out before outlasting St. Louis 57-50 in a Missouri Valley conference tilt. Oscar Robertson flipped in 27 points, his lowest production of the season, but was impressive in other departments.

Dayton ran its mark to 6-0 with a 69-68 squeaker over Eastern Kentucky. Miami bottled up Pitt's high-scoring Don Hennon in the first half and breezed to an 88-75 win over the Panthers. Hennon scored 20 points, all in the second half, but by that time, Miami had the win locked up.

Ohio U.'s Bobcats, after winning their first three, snapped a two-game losing streak on the road with a 58-54 overtime decision over Cornell.

In other games Saturday, Dick Paul's 27 points paced Ohio Wesleyan to a 65-60 win over Buffalo State and Youngstown set a school scoring record with a 112-56 pasting of Marietta.

Other games this week find Xavier (5-0) at Marquette tonight; Akron hosts Seattle and Kent State visits Idaho Tuesday, and Miami journeys to Chicago for a game against DePaul Saturday.

This weekend, Xavier and Bowling Green play in the All-College tourney at Oklahoma City; Dayton goes to New York for the Holiday Festival; Kent State is entered in the California Winter Classic at Santa Maria and Youngstown will play in the NAIA Tipoff Tourney at Quincy, Ill.

Many Major Holiday Cage Tourneys Due

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The holiday tournament, college basketball's cash-lined yearend showcase, progresses from the hectic to the frantic stage this week.

No fewer than a dozen major tournaments involving some 75 of the nation's big teams will be under way within the next eight days.

Three big ones over the past weekend established Kentucky, North Carolina and Auburn as bonafide members of the nation's elite.

Kentucky, defending NCAA champ, ran its record to 8-0 and 13-0 stretching back to last year, by sweeping past Ohio State 95-76 and then West Virginia, 97-91, in the Kentucky Invitation Tournament at Lexington.

North Carolina, back to the top after a hasty rebuilding job by Frank McGuire, bagged the Blue Grass Tournament title in Louisville, clipping previous unbeaten Northwestern in the final, 78-6.

Auburn, building a basketball reputation as formidable as its football prowess, boosted its winning streak to 16, tops of the big schools, with a 79-60 victory over Alabama in the Birmingham Classic final.

Knicks File Protest on Own Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Hawks keep winning and the Philadelphia Warriors keep losing. But there's a new wrinkle in the National Basketball Assn. today.

The New York Knickerbockers are officially protesting a game they won.

As the Knicks began Sunday's nationally televised game with Syracuse at Madison Square Garden, they noted that Dan Biasone, Syracuse president and general manager, was sitting on the Nats' bench.

They made the official protest at the opening tap-off and kept it in effect despite their subsequent 108-94 victory. The Knicks say NBA rules prohibit the presence of anyone but coach, players and trainers on the bench.

Ken Sears and Willie Naulls made the difference for New York. Naulls scored 26 points and Sears 23. Syracuse's Dolph Schayes, the all-time high scorer of the NBA, set a career field goal mark of 4,099 by hitting six. George Mikan, the former Minneapolis ace, held the record of 4,097.

St. Louis, stretching its Western Division lead to six games over idle Detroit, whipped Philadelphia 98-86 in Sunday's other game. It was the Hawks' fourth straight victory.

Philadelphia, in last place in the Eastern Division, lost its seventh in a row. The Hawks' Clyde Lovellette was high with 27 points.

The Sunday victory left the Knicks two games behind first place Boston in the Eastern Division after Saturday's 135-106 drubbing by the Celtics. Syracuse lost 121-120 in overtime to Cincinnati Saturday.

In other Saturday games, the Hawks took Detroit 111-104 and Minneapolis added to the Warriors' woes by beating Philadelphia 99-88.

Cincinnati, Kansas State, North Carolina State, Mississippi State, Xavier of Ohio, Dayton, St. Joseph's of Philadelphia, Michigan State, and a long list of other hopefuls to try to match 'em.

Cincinnati, doing well with a 5-0 record behind All-America Oscar Robertson's 38.8-point average, gets its test in the power-packed Dixie Classic, opening at Raleigh, N.C., a week from tonight. Also in the field are unbeaten North Carolina and Michigan State and North Carolina State, beaten but once in seven starts.

Newly Formed CHS Wrestling Team Ends Fourth in Meet

Circleville High School's newly formed wrestling team came in fourth in a four-way meet Saturday at Franklin Heights.

The CHS mat team, organized here recently by Coach John Current, was participating in its first competition. Coach Current said his crew made a good showing and has plenty of promise.

Other teams participating in Saturday's meet were Franklin Heights, Upper Arlington, and Beaver, all of which floored veteran teams. Upper Arlington captured first place with 98 points; Franklin Heights was second with 80; Beaver was third with 62 and Circleville ended with 30.

Coach Current pointed out that wrestling is a fast growing sport. At least 200 Ohio high schools now include this type of competition, he added.

WITH A little more experience the Tigers should be able to hold their ground with all comers, Current said.

Circleville's schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows: Jan. 3—Dayton Mad River. Jan. 10—at Grove City; Jan. 17—at Upper Arlington; Jan. 24 —

Worthington; Jan. 31—at Dayton Fairmont; Feb. 7—open.

The district meet is slated Feb. 14 and 15 and the state match is listed Feb. 20 and 21.

Here are Saturday's results by weight class:

103 lbs.—Agee (UA); Timmons (B); Evans (FH); Owens (C).
112 lbs.—Holmes (throw-in from Grove City); Upkavage (UA); Sigler (FH); Postage (B).

Mexican Bar Explosion is Fatal to 5

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Police investigated today the possibility that a bomb caused an explosion which killed five persons in a crowded restaurant and bar.

The blast critically injured 13 others Friday night in La Ronda, a popular tourist attraction close to the U.S. embassy.

Police Gen. Luis Cueto said three dead men were restaurant employees, two of them musicians.
A fourth, identified only by a ring with the initials R.C.D. also was believed to be an employee.

U.S. Consul Charles Gendreau said the fifth person might be an American woman but this was uncertain.

A party of Cubans was among the patrons, leading police to speculate that a bomb might have been intended for them. Supporters of both President Fulgencio Batista of Cuba and his rebel opponent Fidel Castro live in Mexico City.

The explosion was centered in the bar, knocking out the front walls and causing one car parked outside to explode. The dining area was lightly damaged and the kitchen untouched.

Police ruled out a gas line explosion since that would have damaged the kitchen.

38 Stills Found In Ohio in 1958

CLEVELAND (AP)—Last October more illegal liquor stills were confiscated in Ohio than in West Virginia which long has been a butt of jokes and cartoons on the bottling of "mountain dew."

Ohio liquor law enforcement agents this year have uncovered 38 stills—exceeding by three a record that stood for 10 years.

Five stills were turned up in October in Ohio, and only four in West Virginia, although neighboring Pennsylvania had six. The national total for that month was 810, with more than half of them in three states—North Carolina 187, South Carolina 119, and Alabama 102.

Until the law moves in moonshine manufacturing is a profitable business. There is no $10.50 a gallon federal tax on homemade corn liquor and no $1.50 state tax. Moonshiners need not pay any attention to building codes or to supervision which costs licensed distillers a tidy sum.

Good homemade hooch can fetch $5 a pint in a Sunday or after-hours sale and through the week brings as much as $3.75 a pint and up.

"The point is that the stuff is pretty high proof and is usually intended to be cut by addition of distilled water," explains Michael T. Corsaro, Cleveland district liquor enforcement agent in charge.

"While you do pay top price for it you get your money's worth by cutting it and increasing the liquid volume.

"Some of this stuff is exceptionally good. We confiscated some corn in Portsmouth, and, by golly, it tested every bit as good as the legal whisky.

In Cleveland and environs stills have been found in basements, attics, upstairs apartments, garages, barns, wooden lots—nearly every conceivable place.

The old copper still with coils is a rare find today. Usually operators employ 50-gallon oil drums and any kind of metal tubing they can find. It has been many months since any 200 and 300-gallon stills have been uncovered.

A 50-gallon oil-drum still found here recently operated on a cycle that produced 20 gallons of high proof moonshine every five days from the 50 gallons of mash.

The mash—a mixture of corn, sugar and water—is heated and then permitted to work for about a month before it is poured into the still and heated to boiling. Alcoholic spirits vaporize and condense in the tubes and filter into containers.

"About the best filter for liquor is a felt hat," Corsaro said. "It is amazing, but the felt does about as good a job as can be done."

Keeping this kind of an operation secret from the law is no mean problem. The souring mash smells strongly, alerting neighbors and inquisitive peace officers.

"Sometimes the operators sprinkle sugar on the top of the mash to hold the odor in, but it doesn't work too well," Corsaro said.
